四、閱讀測驗

[A] Helen Keller was born near Tuscumbia, Alabama. For the first 18 months, she was a normal baby, but an illness made her lose sight and hearing, and, as a result, her speech. If it had not been for Teacher Anne Sullivan, Helen might have led a useless life. Helen was smart and eager to learn. She entered Radcliffe College in 1900. Miss Sullivan sat beside her in the classroom and wrote what was said in class into Helen's hand. Helen graduated with honors in 1904. She continued to write and went on lecture tours with Miss Sullivan.

Helen had learned to speak, but her speech was hard to understand, and Miss Sullivan would repeat to the audience what Helen said. Helen Keller visited many countries in the world.

She died on June 1, 1968, in Westport, Connecticut.

41 What is the main idea of the passage?

- (A) The success of the blind. (B) The short introduction of Helen Keller.
 (C) The seriousness of illness. (D) The disability of deaf people.

42 According to the passage, what kind of person was Helen Keller?

- (A) Stupid. (B) Cold. (C) Narrow-minded. (D) Hard-working.

[B] Do cats really need to drink milk? We've seen the cute images of kittens lapping up milk. But is cow's milk the best food for cats? Not at all! Some cats can't have milk products. For them, a saucer of milk means stomach upset. In the wild, kittens never drink milk after they're given solid food, and domestic cats have no reason to, either. Generally speaking, cats are unable to digest milk around the age of 12 weeks. However, if your cat likes and can tolerate milk, feel free to offer it as a treat sometimes. Milk is a good source of nutrients for the cat which doesn't find it upsets its tummy. But if you never give milk to your cat, it is not missing anything important.

43 What is the best title of the passage?

- (A) The Importance of Milk (B) The Truth about Cats
 (C) How to Own a Pet (D) Wild Kittens v.s. Domestic Cats

44 What does the word "digest" mean?

- (A) To express your points in public.
 (B) To apply a substance that makes movement easier.
 (C) To shake something violently.
 (D) To change food into what your body can use.

45 According to the passage, which of the following statements is TRUE?

- (A) If a cat has a good reaction to milk, you can give it some milk.
 (B) Milk is good for domestic cats, not for wild cats.
 (C) It's important for cats to have milk at the age of 12 weeks.
 (D) If cats are given some milk, they can be healthier than those which are not.
