Passage 3

Do you like amusement parks? I love them. Some of my friends think that roller coasters are scary because they're so fast, but I like the excitement I feel when I'm on one. I feel a rush when the ride drops really quickly. I know this feeling isn't fun for everyone, though. I learned this the hard way last summer. I convinced my friend Penny to go on Total Drop, a giant roller coaster with me. I had so much fun, but as soon as poor Penny got off the ride, she got sick! That made me learn my lesson. I won't force any of my friends to go on rides with me again!

- B 19. What did the speaker learn?
(A) To only go on rides that don't go very fast or have giant drops.
(B) Not to make her friends go on roller coasters if they don't want to.
(C) Not to eat any amusement park food before going on a roller coaster.
(D) To do more research on which roller coasters are the fastest.
- C 20. What do we learn about Penny?
(A) She loves to go on rides with the speaker.
(B) She works at the speaker's favorite amusement park.
(C) She didn't have a positive reaction to Total Drop.
(D) She plans on going to different amusement parks every summer.
